

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Monday, May 15, 2006

Media Contact: Press Office
(202) 226-9600

Hearing: Personnel and Security Clearance Issues within DHS

Subcommittee to examine Shirlington Limo, Brian Doyle cases

WHO: Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight
Chairman Mike Rogers (R-AL)

WHEN: 9:30 a.m., Thursday, May 18, 2006

WHERE: 311 Cannon HOB

WITNESSES

PANEL I

Mr. K. Gregg Prillaman
Chief Human Capital Officer
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Mr. Dwight Williams
Director
Office of Security
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Ms. Kathy Dillaman
Associate Director
Federal Investigations Processing Center
Office of Personnel Management

PANEL II

Ms. Colleen M. Kelley

President

National Treasury Employees Union

Mr. John Gage

National President

American Federation of Government Employees

Professor Charles Tiefer

Professor of Law

University of Baltimore School of Law

BACKGROUND

The Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight will convene a hearing to review the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) clearance processes and procedures, including how they relate to the Brian Doyle and Shirlington Limo cases, and other human capital issues, including implementation of the new personnel system. The Subcommittee will also review how vacancies at the Department affect personnel morale, recruitment, and retention.

#